

A wide-angle photograph of a living room. On the left, a large window with a dark frame and a brown woven blind looks out onto a lush green landscape. The floor is covered in reddish-brown square tiles. In the center, a dark green patterned sofa sits on the tiles, accompanied by a matching armchair and a wooden coffee table. To the right, a wooden dining table and chairs are partially visible. The ceiling is white with a track of four spotlights. The overall atmosphere is warm and inviting.
